

I am writing to express my concern about the new broadcast service called LPFM. I am a regular listener of K-LOVE and would be extremely disappointed to lose the benefit of a Contemporary Christian radio station that really serves the community of Hampton Roads. It provides hope and encouragement to people all over the country, so please do not allow K-LOVE to be replaced by anything else. Thank you.